The trustees, the faculty, the staff, the student body are all integral parts of the Albany Law School. So also are its alumni. It is with pride that the Class of 1971 dedicates its yearbook to the alumni of the Albany Law School.

A brief history such as this can list names and record chronicled events but it cannot, by itself, resurrect the countless memories and recollections so intimately entwined with one's personal experiences and associations with the law school. The primary task belongs to each individual alumnus, the object of our dedication and travail. We can but hope to be a catalyst in this process.

The first law school in New York State, Albany Law was established in 1851 by Amos Dean, Ira Harris and Amasa J. Parker at the northeast corner of State Street and Broadway in Albany. A one-year law course was offered to the initial class of twenty-three students. It was not until 1898-1899 that a two-year curriculum was introduced, and in 1910 the now traditional three-year program was begun.

The nineteenth century produced more than its fair share of outstanding alumni, including Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court David Brewer, class of 1858, President of the United States William McKinley, class of 1867, and 1904 Presidential Candidate Alton B. Parker, class of 1872.

Quality graduates continued in abundance as Robert Jackson of the class of 1912 was appointed Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, serving his country and its law most admirably in that lofty position.

Meanwhile the fledgling law school itself began an itinerant journey through the City of Albany, seemingly destined to reflect the change and progress of the community it chose to serve. From its original home at the site of the "old" Post Office, the Law School moved in fairly rapid succession to State and Green Streets, then to Eagle Street across from the former police headquarters near the foot of the now-emerging South Mall Tower, and from there to the Universalist Church at 239 State Street at the site of the present State Office Building where it remained until 1925.

The "modern era" of Albany Law School began in 1929 at its spanking new edifice on New Scotland Avenue, after a brief existence on Lancaster Street. The present structure was enhanced by the addition of two new wings and modernization of facilities completed in 1969.

The Alumni Section of the VERDICT '71 offers ample evidence that our predecessors, as governors, senators, judges at every level, and men of law in virtually every walk of life, have surpassed the ambitions, hopes, and dreams of the founders and those who have guided the school through its infant years.

Now we, the class of 1971, are ready to embark upon our individual paths in an attempt to create a better world. We know we have been given the means to achieve this goal through our legal training and traditions. We trust that the next fifty years will vindicate our efforts.

"And you judges who would be just what judgment pronounce you upon him who though honest in the flesh yet is a thief in spirit? And how shall you punish those whose remorse is already greater than their misdeeds? Is not remorse the justice which is administered by that self-law which you would fain serve? Yet you cannot lay remorse upon the innocent nor lift it from the heart of the guilty. And you who would understand justice, how shall you unless you look upon all deeds in the fulness of light?"

"Take that thing which we call a man's right. He ought to be able to vindicate it against all the world. But one imperious and resounding prohibition is laid upon him; he cannot take the law into his own hands. And well he knows if he thinks of his own right and of himself alone, and begins to exercise it with that sole idea, then collisions will take place, he will encounter surprises and mishaps and he will come to grief. What has happened to him? He has forgotten that the correlative of right is duty."

"Every man is free to do that which he wills, provided he infringes not the equal freedom of any other man."

Spencer

"When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must – but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up, though the pace seems slow –
You might succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man,
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup.
And he learned too late, when the night slipped down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out –
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt –
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit –
It's when things seem worst that you musn't quit."

Shall you complain who feed the world?
Who clothe the world?
Who house the world?
Shall you complain who are the world,
Of what the world may do?
As from this hour
You use your power,
The world must follow you!

The world's life hangs on your right hand!
Your wrong right hand!
Your skilled right hand!
You hold the whole world in your hand.
See to it what you do!
Or dark or light,
Or strong or right,
The world is made by you!

Then rise as you never rose before!
Nor hoped before!
Nor dared before!
And show as was never shown before,
The power that lies in you!
Stand all as one!
See justice done!
Believe, and Dare, and Do!

You can be what you want to be
And do what you want to do . . .
There's nothing that's too difficult

STUDENT BAR

Woody N. Klose, President

The Student Bar Association of Albany Law School is a member of the American Law Student Association which is sponsored by the American Bar Association. The S.B.A. sponsors a variety of programs ranging from the Justice Jackson Lecture Series, a program of professional speakers named in honor of former U.S. Supreme Court Justice and Albany Law School alumnus Robert H. Jackson, to the annual Orphan's Christmas Party, co-sponsored by the Albany Law Wives Club. Each year the student body also enjoys a gala Christmas Party, one of the major social events financed by the S.B.A.

ASSOCIATION

According to President Woody Klose, "The Albany Law School Student Bar Association membership encompasses the total enrollment of the school. The S.B.A. Executive Council is the coordinating body for all student activities and serves as the liaison between students and faculty/administration. As a result of the increased law school population in 1970-71, the S.B.A. was faced with providing traditional services for many more students. It has been a successful year in some respects, most frustrating in others as academic pressures prevented many from participating in the S.B.A. governmental process. Those who did give so generously of their time and ideas are to be complimented. Those who failed to take an active, responsible role in the activities of the S.B.A. are to be urged to do so in succeeding years.

A Law Firm commanding
Position of standing
Requires a general clerk —
A man who's admitted
To practice, and fitted
To handle diversified work;

Must know the proceedings
Relating to pleadings,
The ways of preparing a brief;
Must argue with unction
For writs of injunction
As well as for legal relief.

Must form corporations
And hold consultations,
Assuming a dignified mien;
Should read each decision
And legal provision
Wherever the same may be seen.

Must analyze cases
And get at their basis,
Should never be idle or slow;
Must manifest learning
In all things concerning
The matters referred to below:

Attachments and trials,
Specific denials,
Demurrers, replies and complaints,
Disbursements, expenses
And partial defenses,
Ejectments, replevins, distraints;

Estoppels, restrictions,
Constructive evictions,
Agreements implied and express,
Accountings, partitions,
Estates and commissions,
Incumbrances, fraud and duress.

Above are essentials,
The best of credentials
Required — and handsome physique;
Make prompt application,
Will pay compensation
Of seventeen dollars a week.
